CHAPTER 291

AN ACT

For the relief of Giles P. Fredell and wife.

May 18, 1956
[H. R. 2717]

Giles P. Fredell and wife.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the interest which accrued on a promissory note for $11,400 executed June 2, 1952, by Giles P. Fredell, of Cottonwood, Tehama County, California, and his wife, in favor of the United States of America, up to and including September 28, 1953, in the amount of $458.17 is hereby waived for the reason that the funds advanced for repairing and rehabilitating an existing irrigation facility could not be used by the borrower without the approval of the representatives of the Secretary of Agriculture, and that approval was withheld because it was subsequently demonstrated that the well would not produce a supply of water sufficient for the borrowers' needs, and the cost of any other satisfactory facility was economically unfeasible. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to cause the proper entries to be made in the accounting records in the Department of Agriculture to effect such waiver.
